STATEMENT:

I believe in Alaska. I believe that 640,000 Alaskans working together can realize the promise of freedom and opportunity that our state holds, that by relying on the values that make us who we are, we can move closer to truly being the Great Land.

As we become more fiscally responsible and heal the divisions that plague our state, we can build a legacy that will equip us to compete and thrive in an increasingly complex world. To rise to the opportunity and overcome these challenges, we need strong, balanced leadership that puts substance and civility over partisan politics.

We are a people that have a unique passion for the place we live and who pride ourselves on a character defined by three attributes: we move forward, act boldly and dream big. To get where we need to go, we must again depend on those traits.

We move forward because progress and prosperity depend on translating vision into effort. That's why we must continue working hard for good jobs, responsible development, quality education and safe, healthy communities.

We act boldly because self-reliance and initiative allow us to control our destiny. It is time to make the smart choices that matter to our families and our futures.

We dream big because Alaska itself defies expectations and because we benefit from a tradition of excellence and achievement. We should demand as much from ourselves and aim as high for those who follow.

Thanks for voting. I hope I have earned your support.
